Translation - Ha Ha Yo - Oh Mother

Oh! Mother
What a mystic and enriched power you have
If you were not in this world
Your children will have no place to return
And they would be wanderers forever

Oh mother, oh my mother
You have prayed repeatedly, putting up with sufferings and severe times facing sadness,
Oh my mother I will sincerely pray for you
Till all your desires come true.

Oh mother I hope you sing peaceful songs on this earth
Mother, with your philosophy and wisdom
Please pray for peace on this earth
We all are waiting for spring to come
Then - you will live as a mother of human century.
