

I ARISE . . .

I Arise
At this dawn,
I emerge
As the light

I Arise
At this dawn,
I emerge
As the light,
Awakened to my eternal vow,
My time is here... my time is now.

My time has come
I am on the stage,
I'll write history
On a brand new page,
I'll blaze new trails and create new paths,
A world of peace... a golden age.

I Arise
At this dawn,
I emerge
As the light,
Awakened to my eternal vow,
My time is here... my time is now.

Embracing anew
My mentor's heart,
Repaying the debt
Of distant past,
Spreading joy and hope in all,
My rightful place.... I take at last.

I Arise
At this dawn,
I emerge
As the light,
Awakened to my eternal vow,
My time is here... my time is now.

Like a charging lion
I forge ahead,
Building the castle
In your stead,
The great desire in my heart,
I'll always fight... I'll play my part.

I Arise
At this dawn,
I emerge
As the light,
Awakened to my eternal vow,
My time is here... my time is now.

I march into the future
The world awaits,
Expanding the ranks
Opening up the way,
With determination deeper than the deep
blue sea,
A new Era awaits... you and me.

I Arise
At this dawn,
I emerge
As the light

I Arise
At this dawn,
I emerge
As the light,
Awakened to my eternal vow,
My time is here... my time is now.

I Arise...
I Arise...
I Arise...
